

Passion Play

The Passion Play is shown each year on Passion Sunday, the weekend before Easter at all the Sunday masses. Teens who gather to put this on, rehearse the week before on Monday-Thursday, from 7:30 – 9:00 pm in the church. No one has more than one or two lines, except Jesus and Pilate, the two biggest roles. All the teens work together to help one another out in this stark play about the passion and death of Jesus.

Players begin to own the passion as they become it – through various characters. They also do a great service for the church, as people look forward to the seeing passion – especially those with younger children, who begin to understand it more fully after watching it.

Everyone in the Passion has a good time behind the scenes. On Sunday, our big day, everyone comes in for a big breakfast and play a bit of first-century-Palestine Knock Out!
